founders Shivraj Patel and Shruti Malani.

project Curves & Dashes, Ahmedabad, India.

standout A minimalist philosophy, coupled with attention to functionality, durability, and comfort, characterizes the work of the Ahmedabad studio the architects founded in 2012 (now with satellite offices in Rajkot and Anand), as is evident in this narrow 450-square-foot workspace, shared by a chartered accountant and a fashion designer, which is equably divided by a sinuous birch-plywood partition with desking on one side and display racks and fitting areas on the other, while slatted paneling hides a common pantry and restroom.
